PARENT/STUDENT CONTRACT

The Holy Child education at Cornelia Connelly School is grounded in a 165-year heritage based on creating an atmosphere conducive to the full development of young women. By choosing a Holy Child education, you have become part of a community, which upholds independence and dignity in the context of Christian ideals.

This Student/Parent Handbook is presented to you in order to acquaint you and your daughter with Cornelia Connelly School. This guide serves as a contract between the student/parent and the school and by choosing a Holy Child education for your daughter, you are agreeing to follow and uphold policy and procedure in this guide.

As the primary educator of my daughter, I have assumed the responsibility of reading the Cornelia Connelly School 2011-2012 Handbook. I support the Holy Child philosophy, mission and goals and will encourage my daughter to make choices, which support them. I understand the policies and procedures, which lie herein and will follow and uphold them. I also understand that it is my responsibility to ensure that my daughter also understands, follows and upholds all that is stated herein.
