

Cornelia Connelly School English III Summer Homework

Welcome to English III! You are about to embark upon your first assignment for the class. I must warn you, do not try to complicate the assignment. It may appear to be deceptively simplistic, but I assure you that I am not deceiving you. All you must do is read How to Read Literature like an English Professor (ISBN - 006000942X) and record chapter notes. I do not have a specific format, style, or formula that you must adhere to for these notes. The only guidelines you must follow for your note taking are the following:

1. Record notes for every chapter in the text
2. Type your final copy of notes
3. Include a final evaluation of the text at the end of your notes. There is no length requirement for this evaluation; you are simply telling me what you learned from reading this book and how the content has helped you as a critical reader.

Should you have any questions regarding the assignment please contact me via email (melkerton@connellyhs.org). In addition to being quizzed on the material, your notes and final evaluation are due the first day of class. Just as a final assurance, you are not responsible for reading any additional texts or writing any other responses (e.g. essays) besides what I have outlined above. Happy reading and writing!
