U101 History of Huntington Beach

Donor: Carlberg Family

The area of Huntington Beach was originally occupied by the Tongva people, whose lands stretched from what is now Topanga Canyon through Aliso Creek in Laguna Beach. In 1909, Huntington Beach was incorporated and named after railroad magnate Henry Huntington. Huntington Beach remained a sleepy seaside town until the famous oil boom of the 1920's. Then in 1925, Duke Kahanamoku brought the sport of surfing to the city. Thirty-four years later the first U.S. Surfing Championships were held here. The following year the Championships were televised rocketing HB into international surfing fame. In 2005, the USA Surf Team adopted HB as its official home. The basket includes: "BOLSA CHICA, Its History From Prehistoric Time To the Present, And What Citizen Involvement And Perseverance Can Achieve" signed by David Carlberg, 2009; "HUNTINGTON BEACH" From Arcadia Publishing's Historic Postcard Series" by Marvin Carlberg, 2009; gift certificate for a 1-2 hour environmental walking tour for up to 15 individuals in the Bolsa Chica Ecological Reserve in HB led by an experienced docent and the President of the Amigos de Bolsa Chica; two 12x14 framed photos of historic Huntington Beach, Pre-1930; Surf City License Plate Frame; "I Love HB" tote bag.

U103 Ceramic Plaque "Jesus & the Woman at the Well" Created at St. Andrew's Abbey

Donor: St. Andrew's Abbey Ceramics

In 1965, Father Maur van Doorslaer approached St. Andrew's Abbey with the idea to establish a ceramics industry in Valyermo as a means to support their monastery. His new ceramic art works were referred to as "cookies", due to their simplicity of form, child-like attitude and reminiscent of the Saint Nicholas cookies given to children in his country. The hallmark of his designs, are the large wide open eyes of saints, Madonna's and angels. These designs are expressing with wide-eyed wonder the beauty of God, his creations and our world as seen simply, through the eyes of a child. Fr. Maur's artwork is not only simple it is also joyful, humorous and kind. It touches people where they "are", not where they "should be".
